Daily Bullion Report

Market Commentary

June gold closed lower on Friday due to strength in the US Dollar. The low-range close sets the stage for a steady to lower opening when Monday's night session begins trading. Stochastics and the RSI are neutral to bearish signaling that sideways to lower prices are possible near-term.

May silver closed lower on Friday as it consolidates some of the rally off April's low. The low-range close set the stage for a steady to lower opening when Monday's night session begins trading. Stochastics and the RSI are overbought but remain neutral to bullish signaling that sideways to higher prices are possible near-term.
